

Our

BY MARGARET MARY SHUFF

Publisher's

Picks

BRAVO! BRAVO! Jan McArt has done it again!

As Director of the Theatre Arts Program Development at Lynn University, McArt is finding fun and exciting talent and bringing them live to the Wold Performing Arts Center.

“Bravo Amici” is the latest sensation to entertain the Boca audience. If you missed the world class performers and stars of Broadway and Londons’ “West End”, you missed an unbeatable combo of stunning divas and handsome tenors.

Fusing classical and contemporary music, “Bravo Amici” aims “for the audience to have more fun than we do”...and they do have fun! Their beautiful voices and charismatic personalities keep you laughing and crying...clapping and cheering...on an amazing roller coaster of emotion in the hour and a half performance.

If you missed the shows this past weekend, you missed a singing sensation. You don't need to go to New York, all that talent (and more) is right in your own backyard at the Wold Theater on the Lynn Campus.

Posted: Tuesday, January 24th, 2012 @ 2:26 pm